Service and Support

To obtain service/support for your Mutoh Spitfire printer, please contact your Mutoh authorized dealer. Have your printer serial number available and be prepared to answer diagnostic questions your dealer may ask. Your dealer will resolve or guide you to the proper sources for RIP, network, color management or application related issues. In the event of a printer hardware related issue, your dealer will obtain a service authorization from Mutoh to initiate on-site service.

Your dealer will open a service call through Mutoh. Self servicing dealers will be provided with a Mutoh authorization number which authorizes the dealer to schedule an ETA (estimated time of arrival) with you. Calls for non-self servicing dealers will be scheduled through Mutoh's national service provider. In all cases, a best effort is made to be on-site the next business day provided calls are received by 1:00 PM Arizona time. Calls received after 1:00 PM Arizona time may require an additional day.

Mutoh will generally ship part(s) next day to the customer site to coincide with technical service. Mutoh may send more parts than required to reduce the likelihood of additional down time; receipt of service parts does not imply that replacement is necessary. All parts, used and unused must be returned to Mutoh by the servicing technician.

On rare occasions, and at its sole discretion, Mutoh may decide to exchange a printer. In such cases, the original unit and its parts become the property of Mutoh America and the new printer or parts fulfill the remaining warranty period for the original product. Parts may be new or reconditioned to Mutoh factory specifications. Additionally, if Mutoh elects to exchange a printer, the replacement unit will consist of the printer only – accessories, manuals, software, stand, cables and promotional materials are not included. It is the customer's responsibility to receive and install the new unit, as well as to prepare and package the original unit and alert Mutoh that the status is ready for pick-up. Units not ready for return within 5 business days will be invoiced at then prevailing rates for the replacement printer.
